R.E How can Parents Help?

Even if you're raising a family rooted in one faith, it is important that you show your children how to connect with and tolerate other religions. This can be done through a variety of different ways, such as: visiting other places of worship within our community; reading religious texts at the local library or by embracing foods from other cultures. It is also important that our children understand their family's religious backgrounds, their ethical and spiritual beliefs as well as how these links with our British Values.
