

Safeguarding

You can trust adults in school and talk to them about your concerns

You can help yourself and other children

If you tell an adult in school that you or another child is worried, hurt or upset, they will help you.

They will LISTEN and make you feel SAFE, respected and trusted.

They will only tell the people who NEED TO KNOW to keep you safe.

What is child abuse?

Child abuse is wrong and is against the law!

Physical Abuse

Harm to Your Body that Makes You Feel Pain

Emotional Abuse

Harm to Your Heart or Mind

Sexual Abuse

Behaviours that Make You Feel Bad or Embarrassed

Neglect

Carers Not Taking Care of You

Child Exploitation

Taking Advantage of You

If it feels wrong, it probably is wrong - tell a trusted adult

If someone says something, or has opinions that make you uncomfortable, or if they try to persuade you to be unkind to others because of their appearance, skin colour or religion you must tell someone.
